THE MORNING HERALD
BY E. W. HARRIS & SON.

Entered at the postoffice at Greenville, Texas, as second-class mail matter.

Tuesday, May 24, 1910.

JOHNSON AT CELINA.

already begun. I simply do not propose to surrender the demand for protection by statute nor to yield the powers of the legislature to free Texas from the power of this business machine. I am not a politician. I am not a man who has been arrayed against the people. I am a man who means to say to the saloon in Texas: "If you can capture one-third of the senate and have them to be-grace the will of the people and kill saloonism you will be out of the world so far as statewide prohibition is concerned."

They are trying to so shape the matter that the people of Texas will be tied hand and foot. One crowd is saying that a majority of the people of Texas have no power to demand the submission of an amendment to the constitution to enable the people to amend that instrument. Then there is another crowd to which certain people who claim to be prohibitionists have joined themselves who are saying that we cannot and shall not have prohibition until the constitution is amended. If so, then what happens of the power of the people of Texas. They are robbed of their right to change the government and are completely helpless in the hands of a few men who are using the saloon and the political machine to keep the people in a state of slavery. I do not propose to stand for any such deal. Prohibition by statute is constitutional. The question has been decided in Texas by the highest court to which cases go. The court of criminal appeals has said in so many words that "the proposition does not divest the legislature of the state of the power to prohibit the traffic in whisky throughout the state and they have no power to prevent now being contended for by the enemies of statutory prohibition as preposterous. Why should any prohibitionist find it necessary to overrule the decision of our courts in order to give the saloons of Texas a further lease of life?"

This part of the speech was largely new to the letter of T. N. Jones, published in this morning's Record.

The speaker today connected the name of Dr. J. H. Gamble of Dallas with a committee of prohibitionists who went to Austin at the opening of the legislature and demanded the introduction of a bill for statutory prohibition to be urged in case submission of the amendment failed.

A crowd of about 500 people, many women being in the number, heard this part of the address with interest, and there was a big demonstration following the arraignment of the speaker as the candidate of the saloons and breweries. The railroad commissioner was again charged as being tried to drag the Republican platform into the Democratic party, and the speaker said he did not blame the 20,000 Republicans of South Texas for waiting in remain-loyal to their platform and follow it into the Democratic primary and vote for Colquhoun.

Not Sorry for Blunder.
"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of constitution, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a long-suffering cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful.
It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unvarnished remedy for coughs, colds, throat, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. See Bottle. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed to

One Conductor Who Was Cured.
Mr. Willard Adams is his name and he writes about it—"Some time ago I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism. I used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect, and the third bottle put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky., Street Railway. It gave me more relief than any medicine I had ever used, and it will do all you claim in cases of rheumatism." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures rheumatism by stimulating the uric acid from the blood. Sold by Gee's Drug Store.

fore Robert Madson, of West Burlington, of physical suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, the bottles of the medicine were tried, and completely cured him. It is completely guaranteed for Stomach, Liver or Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c. at all druggists.
